CALEEN NORROD JOHNSON, CFRE
Executive Director,
Nathan Adelson Hospice Foundation

Dear Friends,

While this year we cannot meet in person, I want to share the celebration of Nathan Adelson Hospice's 17th Annual Butterfly Release, held virtually.

Our video presentation is a wonderful way to remember and honor our loved ones while still practicing safe social distancing. As author Margaret Atwood says, "I exist in two places, here and where you are."

It is our hope that this event helps you on your journey of remaking life after loss. As we honor those we have lost and celebrate their lives, we can share in the healing process and help strengthen each other and our community.

For more than 40 years, we have cared for the residents of our community. We pledge to continue to fulfill our vision that no one ends the journey of life alone, afraid or in pain.

A special thank you to our sponsor, Palm Mortuaries, Cemeteries and Crematories, and our nonprofit partner, The Maximum Hope Foundation.

With sincere appreciation,

Karen Rubel

Maximum Hope is a lifeline for families navigating the devastating financial and emotional challenges of caring for a child with a critical illness.

When a child is diagnosed with a life-limiting condition, parents may lose income or employment due to extended stays in the hospital with their little one. This financial toll can threaten a family's home, leave them unable to pay bills, and even prevent them from getting to and from the hospital where their child is receiving treatment.

Maximum Hope assists with mortgage payments, rent or other living expenses so parents can focus on what is most important: their child. We also provide items of hope for children and families to ensure they know they are not alone.

John Anderson

On Sunday, April 22, 2007, Nathan Adelson Hospice lost a beloved member of our family, John Anderson. During his 23 years of service at Nathan Adelson Hospice, John demonstrated outstanding commitment to excellence.

With an easy-going personality and infectious laugh, John provided comfort and support to all of those he touched.

To pay tribute to a man who gracefully maintained beauty and strength during his life, Nathan Adelson Hospice is proud to name this important event in his honor.
